

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. It costs me less money by having the Indiana's Privacy law in place. I no longer have to pay for Privacy Manager on my phone bill which was also an inconvenience for people that call me from their cell phones. I am too busy to answer unwanted calls.